Continuing Education Student: Texas Public Education Grant (TPEG-CE) Application

The Texas Public Education Grant (TPEG) for Continuing Education (CE) is a need-based grant that helps to cover a portion of CE tuition and fees. This application must be submitted to the Student Financial Aid Office each term you are enrolled in CE courses.

Student Eligibility Requirements

- Must be registered in a CE program
- Must enroll in at least 40 clock hours
- Must be registered with Selective Service or be exempt. Complete attached form to verify.
- Must submit a FAFSA or TASFA
- Must have financial need
- Must be a Texas resident

TPEG Awarding Regulations

- You must pay the cost of any remaining charges on your student bill not covered by TPEG.
- TPEG will not be awarded if you are already receiving VA Benefits, Hazlewood, or other tuition benefits that cover the full cost of your tuition and fees.
- TPEG will not be awarded to cover a CE course previously paid.

Selective Service Statement of Registration Status

Note: If you have previously submitted this form to the Alamo Colleges. You do not need to complete it again.

Student Name: _____ Banner ID: _____

In accordance with the Texas Education Code, all male students between ages 18-26 must be registered with Selective Service to be eligible to receive state financial aid. Please confirm your registration status in the options listed below.

For more information on the Selective Service law and registration process, visit sss.gov. If you are unsure of your registration status, check sss.gov/verify/, before responding.

Select the status that applies to you:

- ☐ I was born female and I am not required to register.
- ☐ I was born male and I am registered with Selective Service.
- ☐ I was born male and I am under the age of 18. I am not currently required to register with Selective Service.
- ☐ I was born male and I am over age 18. I am not registered with Selective Service and I am not exempt. Note: choosing not to complete registration for Selective Service will disqualify you from receiving state aid.
- ☐ I was born male and I am over age 26. I am not registered with Selective Service.
- ☐ I was born male and I am exempt from registration with Selective Service. Briefly explain why you are exempt below:

By signing below, you certify that the statement provided above is true and accurate. If you provide false information on this form, you may be required to reimburse the institution for any aid received and penalties may be imposed. Completion of this form does not guarantee that you will be awarded state financial aid.
