

I Am SAC Proud
Kayla Salwey
Biography

Kayla Salwey, a self-described military brat, is a proud SAC student pursuing a Liberal Arts/Business degree.

After high school, she took after several family members and decided to enlist in the Air Force. After serving four years as a mechanic, Kayla decided to pursue higher education. She first took a shot at culinary school and quickly discovered that it wasn't for her. Eventually, she found home here at San Antonio College.

Today, Kayla is an enthusiastic student leader and serves as President of the Student Government Association as well as Historian for the Campus Activities Board.

With plans to graduate in May 2018, Kayla hopes to continue her education at UTSA to earn a bachelor's degree. One day, she hopes to own her own event planning business.

While her family lives on the North Dakota/Canadian border, Kayla and her husband are raising their two-year old toddler, Eleanor, here in San Antonio.

As a veteran, a mother, a first-generation college student, and a student leader— Kayla is unique, confident, tolerant, ambitious, passionate, funny, sociable and SAC PROUD.

